Additional Information

GRADE ADVANCEMENT:

If a D allows no EARNED runs in any 5 consecutive innings: he advances to C

If a C allows no EARNED runs in any 6 consecutive innings: he advances to B

If a B allows no EARNED runs in any 7 consecutive innings: he advances to A

- When a relief pitcher enters the game in the middle of an inning, raise his grade one letter against the first batter he faces.
- If pitcher is rated "ZZ", play 14 result is 'two balls: not walk' with BASES EMPTY.
- If pitcher is rated "Z", and play result 14 is "Z-Ball", that play result is changed to "Z-2 balls".

* Indicates two outs. † Indicates sacrifice: no time at bat charged. FC Indicates fielder's choice.

INJURIES and EJECTIONS are to be IGNORED beginning Season 36:

PITCHING:

- Certain batters may have numbers in the second columns of their cards. For all numbers in the second columns, always refer to the 'D' column. For pitchers with A&C, A&B, etc refer to column for 'A' pitchers unless it results in a hit. In that case, refer to the second letter for the final play result.

INTENTIONAL WALKS:

- The defensive Manager may intentionally walk any batter by stating "walk him" prior to the roll of the dice.

HIT & RUN:

- The offensive team may call for a Hit & Run whenever 1st Base or 1st and 3rd base are occupied and the batter has 2 or more 31's on his card. Refer to the Hit & Run result and the MDTL Rules when using the Hit & Run except when the play results in a '10' or '11'; in which case you use the regular playing board result.

OPTIONAL BASE COACHING:

Effective Season 35:

The APBA base coaching options shall again be used as the Red Light/Green Light rule has been abolished

In Face-to-Face Play Managers may instruct any and all runners as they choose, including:

1. Before each roll of the dice, with a runner or runners on base, the offensive team manager may elect to, "play it safe" with respect to the advancement of base runner(s) following a single or double or both. The specific runner or runners must be named (never the batter), and said runners will then advance just one base on a single (if stated) regardless of what the board indicates: WHICH MAY ALSO NULLIFY A SPECIFIED ADVANCEMENT OF THE BATTER OR FOLLOWING BASE RUNNER. Such runners thus avoid those put outs that would have resulted from trying for the extra base, but also, by "playing it safe", may not advance any extra bases which the board states they otherwise would have reached safely.
2. The manager may elect to "play it safe" with respect to base advancement following a fly ball. The runner or runners must be named and said runners will then hold their bases on any caught fly, thus nullifying either a double play or a safe advancement as may be indicated on the playing board.
3. The manager may "play it safe" with respect to base stealing with runners on any of three bases, not the batter. This nullifies both the successful steals as well as the outs, including pick-offs. If either runner is being held with Runners on First and Third, all double steals are nullified.

In all above coaching: the runners "playing it safe" must be named with respect to the above named situation: or situations (1:2:3) before the dice roll, or coaching option on that play is lost. OPTIONAL COACHING DOES NOT APPLY TO SACRIFICE AND HIT & RUN

Rare Play Result - Rare play results when runners on base only and a rare play comes up (23,36-41), then reroll and use the rare play randomizer chart below.
